Mark 9.38—50

Reflect on today's sentence

Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can it be seasoned? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another

Mark 9.50

As we gather in the various churches of our parish, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, the Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul peoples, and their elders past and present. We honour the connection the traditional custodians have with this land.

Prayer of the Day

O God,
your Son has taught us that those who give a cup of water in his name
will not lose their reward:
open our eyes to see those who are in need,
and teach us to set no store by riches
and earthly rewards,
so that, in surrendering ourselves to serve you in your children,
we may labour for the treasure that
endures;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for the Archdeaconry

Loving God, let us be people of courage.
Speak to the depths within our hearts and souls; the places where we ask the questions of meaning and faith and purpose. Help us attend to the answers,
help us recognize what makes us afraid,
what paralyses and holds us back. Let us understand these things, and then with love, with humour, courage and humility let us teach and learn, dream, and imagine and with every action, every word, work towards the vision of Your Kingdom among us. In Jesus's Name. Amen.

Message from Rev'd John on today's readings

A Trumpet call to the church.

We continue to reflect on James 3:1-12

The tongue is a clear reflection of the heart

Matt 12:33-35. Jesus clearly links the heart to the tongue

Jer 17:9. The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure.

Below, encouraging words to help us to BRIDLE our tongues.

A careless word may kindle strife.

A cruel word may wreck a life.

A bitter word may hate, and still,

A brutal word may smite and kill.

A gracious word may soothe the way.

A joyous word may light the day.

A timely word may lessen stress

A loving word may heal and bless.

Why we should be a praying Church

Martin Luther: “Prayer is the most important thing in my life. If I should neglect prayer for a single day, I should lose a great deal of the fire of faith.”

John Wesley: “I have so much to do that I must spend several hours in prayer before I am able to do it.”

Billy Graham: “Every person whose life has counted for the church or for the Kingdom of God has been a man of prayer. You cannot afford to be too busy to pray. A prayerless Christian is a powerless Christian.”

Prayer Requests

We give thanks for prayers answered and ask for continued prayers for:

Desree Crawford & family, Penny & Bernie Montgomery, Jayke, Robyn, Jenny, Bryan and family, Leone, parishioners in the congregation of All Saints.

Pray for those whose need is ongoing:

Tyson, Jan Embrey, Yvonne and Ian Hillard, Enid and Susanne Mallon.
