John 6.51—58

Reflect on today's sentence

Jesus said, "Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them."

John 6.56

As we gather in the various churches of our parish, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, the Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul peoples, and their elders past and present. We honour the connection the traditional custodians have with this land.

Prayer of the Day

Everliving God,
your Son, Jesus Christ, gave himself as living bread for the life of the world:
give us such a knowledge of his presence that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life to serve
you continually;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in unity
with the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Archdeaconry

Loving God, let us be people of courage.
Speak to the depths within our hearts and souls; the places where we ask the questions of meaning and faith and purpose. Help us attend to the answers, help us recognize what makes us afraid, what paralyzes and holds us back. Let us understand these things, and then with love, with humour,
courage and humility let us teach and learn,
dream, and imagine and with every action,
every word, work towards the vision of Your Kingdom among us. In Jesus's Name. Amen.

Why we should be a praying Church

Martin Luther: “Prayer is the most important thing in my life. If I should neglect prayer for a single day, I should lose a great deal of the fire of faith.”

John Wesley: “I have so much to do that I must spend several hours in prayer before I am able to do it.”

Billy Graham: “Every person whose life has counted for the church or for the Kingdom of God has been a man of prayer. You cannot afford to be too busy to pray. A prayerless Christian is a powerless Christian.”

We give thanks for prayers answered and ask for continued prayers for:

Desree Crawford & family, Penny & Bernie Montgomery, Jayke, Robyn, Jenny, Bryan and family, Leone, parishioners in the congregation of All Saints.
